

Katrin Zimmermann, VP USA, TLGG

Katrin launched TLGGs first international office in New York. As Vice President USA Katrin is responsible for consulting services available on a global business level within NAFTA.

Prior to TLGG, Katrin ran the global business innovation practice of the Lufthansa Group and co-created the Lufthansa Innovation Hub in Berlin. As a Lufthansa veteran with early beginnings in business development and human resources, Katrin has always initiated future oriented solutions in her various fields of responsibility.

In her previous role as Director Business Innovation at the Lufthansa Innovation Hub, she was responsible for ideation and executing new ventures, as well as start-up scouting, talent recruitment, and evaluation and integration of digital services within the Lufthansa Group companies.