

Dr. Daniel Jonas, Manager, Campana & Schott

Dr. Daniel Jonas develops and drives digital transformation programs for the Aviation and Healthcare industries. He creates and advances omnichannel customer experiences as well as new customer-centric products and services for international markets. Daniel finished his dissertation based on a Project Portfolio Performance Benchmarking in 2011. He is lecturing organizational leadership at the Technical Universities in Berlin and Braunschweig, Germany and he is the author of several publications and presentations in the field of program and project portfolio management. Daniel lives in New York and in Berlin and he is with Campana & Schott for 6 years now.