

Achim Wolper is the Head of KPMG US' German Practice with a focus on subsidiaries of German companies in the US. As both a German Wirtschaftsprüfer and a licensed CPA with well over 20 years of professional experience, he is an expert in audit and accounting matters and has significant experience in cross-border transactions, internal controls, risk management and corporate governance. Prior to his current role, Achim was based in Munich and the signing partner for two DAX30-companies headquartered in Germany. From 2006 to 2008, Achim was the Chief Operating Officer for KPMG Europe LLP's audit business. Early in his career, he spent over ten years in St. Louis, serving both large and medium-sized companies.

Achim holds a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Missouri-Columbia.