

Christoph Schneider
Senior Vice President
MB Financial Bank

Mr. Schneider's 35 year banking career started at Deutsche Bank, Germany in 1983 where he focused on investments, investment banking and capital markets. With encouragement from his employer, he embarked on a 7 year assignment to Tokyo and eventually took over the role of Head of Administration at Commerzbank (Tokyo). His tenure prepared him well to move between continents. In 1994 he transitioned to Chicago assuming the position of VP, Head of Administration/Finance for Commerzbank. In 2012 Mr. Schneider joined MB Financial Bank and presently holds the position of Senior Vice President, Division Manager Business where he is responsible for an entire Region's business production and sales management with a focus on providing capital, depository accounts, and treasury management.

Mr. Schneider has an MBA with concentration in Finance from Benedictine University in Lisle finishing at the top of his class with a GPA of 4.0 He added the coveted designation as Licensed Treasury Professional (CTP) in 2012, making him a subject matter expert to assess critical strategic functions related to corporate liquidity, budgeting, financing needs, as well as capital and risk management.